College students experiencing problems with and addictions to alcohol and/or illicit drugs face many complexities.

Join host Ivette Torres, Associate Director for Consumer Affairs, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT), Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), and a panel of experts in this important and timely Webcast as they look at the implications of student drinking and illicit or licit drug use and the effects on student life and achievements. Emphasis will be made on the role of school administrators and the academic community in reversing current trends. Parental and other influencing factors related to youth and young adult behaviors also will be addressed.

Panelists include:

- Ralph W. Hingson, Sc.D., M.P.H., Director of the Division of Epidemiology and Prevention Research National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism
- Roberta Gealt, Associate Scientist, Center for Drug and Alcohol Studies, University of Delaware
- Robert Deloian, Former International President, Phi Delta Theta Fraternity
- Chris Allen, Artist and Student, Minneapolis College of Art and Design.

This Webcast also contains personal stories about people in recovery and interviews from treatment providers and others in the field who help make recovery possible.
